PLAYERS OF THE WEEK (Week ending November 6, 2011)

Forward - Yevgeniy Lymanskyy - Florida Eels - 92 (Ukraine)

Lymanskyy had a huge weekend for the Eels recording 8 points in two games. Lymanskyy had a goal and 2 assists on Saturday leading his team to a 10-2 victory. On Sunday he exploded offensively with 5 goals en-route to a 6-2 victory. A native of the Ukraine, Lemanskyy has been selected to play for his Country at the World Juniors this year.

Goalie - Evan Moorehouse - Springfield - 94 (Westfield, MA)

Evan came into the game 5 minutes into action after Bay State came out flying scoring 2 quick goals but Evan came in and shut the door stopping all 34 shots he faced. He kept the Breakers off the score board and allow the Pics offense to chip away and eventually go on to a 6-2 victory in an always tough place to play Rockland.

Defense - Matt DaSilva - Jersey Hitmen - 93 (Randolph, NJ)

Despite playing only one of Jersey's two games on the weekend DaSilva posted 6 points in that contest. DaSilva notched 2 goals and 4 assists including scoring the game winning goal.

After taking 3 out of 4 points last weekend from Rochester Makysmum, The Philadelphia Revolution looked for a way to take down the 2nd place Syracuse Stars, and the only team to sweep The Revolution this season. Lucky for Philadelphia, they were able to pick up a few more weapons for the offensive arsenal in winger Pete Malamud and center Ian Robertson. In his first shift with the Revolution, center Ian Robertson hit a seem up the middle and received a pass from line mate Michael Young putting Ian in on a breakaway. Robertson perfectly executed a forehand to backhand move before gently directing his shot through the split pads of Syracuse's goalie to put Philly up 1 - 0. The 2nd period began as a quiet 1 - 0 game, a rare occasion took place. Kyle Jennings and Sean Fleming scored back-to-back shorthanded goals on the same Syracuse power play to open up what would turn out to be an offensive shoot out. Philadelphia forwards; Taylor Glanding, Kyle Jennings, and Pete Malamud each added another tally to give the Revolution a commanding 7 - 2 lead headed into the 3rd. However, the extreme amount of offensive talent on Syracuse gave them a chance at a comeback. After 4 unanswered goals by Syracuse in the third, Philadelphia's Sean Fleming brought the momentum of the Syracuse stars to a screeching halt as he scored his 2nd of the night to ensure the Revolution victory with a final score of 9 - 6

Looking to even the Syracuse / Philadelphia series at 2 - 2, the Revolution showed up Sunday with their A game intact. The hockey gods were laughing at Philly as Syracuse scored 3 times on shots that hit a Revolution player and redirected into the Revolution's net. Despite the unlucky goals against, Philadelphia kept themselves in the game thanks to a rebound goal from Young and a turnaround wrist shot from Billones that beat a surprised Stars goal tender short side. Syracuse scored the lone goal in the 2nd leaving the score 5 - 3 headed into the 3rd. Philly pulled out all the stops offensively, but despite outshooting the Stars 16 - 4 in 3rd period, Philadelphia was only able to slip 1 more past the stellar goaltending of the Stars. Although the Revolution played a strong team game they were forced to accept a split on the weekend

The Florida Eels were on fire Saturday evening and Sunday morning, launching a full-scale attack on the Space Coast Hurricanes. In game one the Eels downed the Hurricanes 10-2 with goals coming from six different players and a myriad in assists coming from several others. The first goal came in the first period by Bryce Peterson (3rd of the year) assisted by Chris Daegling. The second goal in the first period came from Rookie DJ Faber (1st of the year) assisted by Defensemen Vinny Cavalieri. Faber, who played last year for the U-18 Midget Everblades, struck again later that period for his second goal of the afternoon (2nd of year) assisted by Yevgeniy Lymanskyy and rookie, Kerry Cummings. Continuing strong in period one, the Eels struck again with a fourth goal coming from Kerry Cummings (1st of year) assisted by Nick Scharz, the Swiss native, and Vasili Malliaras, the point leader among defensemen in the Empire League.

The Eels maintained the same offensive pressure in the second period with five more goals. The Eels fifth goal and his second of the afternoon came from Bryce Peterson (4th of year). The Eels sixth goal came from Vasili Malliaras (7th of year) assisted by Nick Scharz and Kerry Cummings. The seventh goal was notched by none other than DJ Faber (3rd of year) earning his first hat trick for the Eels and in Junior Hockey. What was so special is that this was DJ's first game playing Juniors! Assisting on DJ's 3rd goal was assisted by Sean Whiteman, a Chicago native, and Mark Marsala.

The Eels scoring continued as Yevgeniy Lymanskyy scored the Eels eighth goal, which was assisted by Ryan Frank and Vasili Malliaras. The Eels scored two more times in the game to end it. The ninth goal of the game was scored by Vasili Malliaras (8th of year) and was assisted by the two imports Yevgeniy Lymanskyy and Nick Scharz. The Eels final goal and number 10 on the day was notched by rookie defensemen Patrick Daniels, a 1996 born defensemen from Columbus Ohio, in the 3rd period (2nd of year) again earning an assist Nick Scharz who finished the weekend with six points.

Through it all Goaltender Dylan Knox was outstanding - turning away 35 shots. He has been strong in net all season long and it was great to see him earn his first win. Dylan sees the ice real well and was a wall turning away shot after shot and his lightning glove stole goal after goal.

On Sunday The Eels did battle and faced a much tougher Space Coast team. In this game the Eels won 6-4, earning their second straight win and their third of the season. In this game, the Eels import, Yevgeniy Lymanskyy scored 5 goals which jump started the Eels and helped them earn their 6-4 victory. Earning assists on the five Lymanskyy goals were Vasili Malliaras, Ryan Frank, Nick Scharz, and Kerry Cummings. Brett Harris, a newcomer to the Eels, also tallied late in the third period for his first goal of the year, assisted by Nick Cormier, a goal that proved crucial in the game. Although Lymanskyy had a huge weekend, earning six goals and two assists, Nick Scharz, a Swiss native, had a big weekend as well, earning six assists during his first two games back from a collarbone injury. Overall, this weekend was an enormous success for the Eels and they look to continue this success against the Atlanta Knights this coming weekend. In net in this game for the Florida Eels was Jake Widmer > Jake played very strong against a constant attack from Space Coast. Jake earned his 2nd win of the season. Being veteran Prep School goalie Jake took the pressure of the game in stride. He repeated his Stella performance he had a week ago vs the Jr Blades but this time he was not going to be denied a win. He came to the game determined and very focused. In the end he skated out victorious.

The Jersey Hitmen traveled to Frederick, MD this past weekend for a two game set with the Freeze and came home with two wins. Overall the Hitmen outscored Frederick 25-3 on the weekend with several players posting multi-point games.

During Saturday's 12-1 victory defenseman Matt DaSilva ('93) lead the way with a six point effort on the strength of 2 goals and 4 assists. Justin McKenzie ('94) followed DaSilva with four points of his own, including his first goal of the season (1G 3A). Three more Hitmen had 3 points on the evening including a goal and two assists from Andy DeAngelis ('95) and three assists each for Cody Calcagno ('95) and Brendan Calello ('93). Chris Fersini ('92), Robbie Marsanico ('96), Nick Beatrice ('93), John Redgate ('94) and Corey Leskanic ('94) each contributed two points in the effort. Leskanic's goals were his first of the year as was the goal added by Connor O'Callahan ('94). Jon Spada ('94), Cory Sala ('94) and goaltender Matt Braun ('92) also posted assists on the evening.

On Sunday the Hitmen continued their torrid scoring pace en route to a 13-2 victory. Calello and Beatrice each posted 5 point days featuring a goal and 4 assists each. Line mate Nick Carey ('93) and James Trenkle ('92) followed closely with 2 goals and 2 assists of their own. John Spada ('94) and Evan Byrnes ('93) had three points apiece. Spada with 2 goals and an assist and Byrnes with a goal and 2 assists. Steve Scholer ('94) added a goal and an assists, as did Nick Bilchuk ('92). Sala and McKenzie would notch 2 assists each, while Leskanic scored for the second consecutive day and Frank Pinho ('95) added his first of the year to help send the Hitmen home with the sweep.

Notes: The Hitmen will begin a stretch of 6 games in 9 days when they take on the Philadelphia Revolution on Saturday in Philly. After the weekend set with the Rev the Hitmen will return home to take on the Jersey Wildcats on Monday followed by the New York Apple Core Wednesday. From there it is off to New Hampshire for a two game set with the Monarchs on the 19th and 20th...All games can be seen at www.fasthockey.com

"EMPIRE TEAM COOKS UP A WINNER FOR CHARITY"

QUEENS, NY... The New York Applecore Empire team held their annual Ronald McDonald House "cooking dinner for the residents" event this past Monday and it was huge success both in the kitchen and fun for all. RMH helps families with sick children cope with the high costs associated with long stays while children receive treatment for serious diseases. RMH also helps families with emotional help needed as their child is across the street at the hospital.

The AC Empire team is also the defending RMH CUP Champion and is looking to repeat the success achieved last year when they beat PAL for the CUP. The 'Core will face off against PAL next Tuesday (Nov. 15) 6 PM @ the RINX in Hauppogue, NY. The winner of that game will face the LI Royals for the RMH CUP in January at the Nassau Coliseum.

The 'Core was represented in the kitchen by Chief Chef Henry 'Henri' Lazar, Salad Master Matt Bavaro, Hot Dog and Hamburger experts Keegan Travers & Ryan Cheng, Special appearance by world renown Pasta Expert Mike Dellatto, Rice and Stove Master Ed Shinnick, French Fry Innovator Jon Kaszuba and "Special Guest Chef Joe Bochichio who has taught cooking worldwide to top cooks such as Pierre from the Ritz and Jose from the Waldorf. Joe cooked a "Mystery Dish" for the guests. Assistant Coach Brian Johnston stayed out of the way of the experts and cleaned the pots and pans when we were done.

Chief Chef Henry 'Henri' Lazar, who is the USA based Chef Boy Ar Dee official taster of new products to be distributed in the US expertly prepared the appetizers such as Honey dipped Ham with Le Crackers, and Cheese a la Tuscany. Passersby on the street were trying to break into the RMH to get at those appetizers as the windows in the kitchen were left open. Crowd control experts kept the outside moochers away from the superbly prepared appetizers. Unlike last year when the Hot dogs and Hamburgers were grilled outside and the cooks ate most of the fixing's, there was plenty left for the residents. The players were very proud to have helped out for a great cause and exchanged new recipes with each other before leaving for the talk show circuit.

Jon Kaszuba has just published his new book---"French Fry Heaven--It's Not Just Another Potato". He will be at Shoprite tomorrow to sign autographs. Joe Bochichio was rushed to JFK to catch a flight to London to join the Queen for private lessons on the correct way to Bake Chicken Fingers. Keegan Travers and Ryan Cheng are ready to open a Burger King. Mike Dellatto has signed a (3) year deal to train all the Chefs who work for Bertucci's. Matt Bavaro will miss some games in December as he tours the Mid-West and demonstrates his new way to make Salad. His Book "Lettuce & Tomatoes" has sold over 5 million copies in China alone as he has perfected a technique where the tomatoes do not fall to the middle of the WOK. Ed Shinnick who was the world's leading expert on wrap arounds to the forwards in hockey has signed a new deal with GE to teach salesmen the wrap around finger technique to turn on the Stove. Assistant Coach Brian Johnston rushed home to do the dishes. Master Chef Henry Henri' Lazar rushed to Kam Sheng to get the #17 Combination Dinner (Spare Ribs and Fried Rice) and then to watch Hockey at its best (Long Beach HS vs. Levittown) at Long Beach. The residents of RMH enjoyed the gourmet meal prepared by the 'Core and we look forward to next year's cooking spectacular.

The Syracuse Stars traveled to Philadelphia this past weekend looking to snap a three game losing streak. Saturday's game wasn't the answer to snapping the streak as the Revolution scored the first 5 goals of the game. Alex Tuch's goal cut the Revolution lead to 5-1 but then Philly scored two more goals to increase their lead to 7-1. Jeremy Marginsky goal midway in the 2nd period made the score 7-2 going into the third period. The Stars started to make a comeback as they scored two goals, Marginsky and Trent Yule, in the first minute of the period. Two more goals from Luke Kirwan and Alex Brink were not enough as the Stars fell 9-6. The nine goals scored by the Revolution were the most goals that the Stars have given up in a game this season.

Sunday was the opportunity for the Stars to even the weekend series and get back to their winning ways. Garth Gray tallied the first goal of the game and gave the Stars their first lead of the weekend at 6:46. A pair of goals from Alex Tuch and Luke Kirwan's first goal of the game gave the Stars a commanding 4-2 lead going into the first intermission. Kirwan's other goal came in the 2nd period to give the Stars all the goals they needed as they defeated the Revolution 5-3 to end the losing streak. With the split over the weekend the Stars won the season series over the Revolution 3 games to one.

The Stars return home this weekend to take on the Maksymum Selects at the Cicero Twin Rinks.

Brewster bulldogs forward Jake Garay amassed a hat trick against the New Jersey Wildcats in a 5 -3 victory, and was a big part defensively in shutting down the Cats on Sunday in Brewster's 5-1 victory, he also has been scoring regularly for the team including 2 goals against the Applecore in last Thursdays game on long island

Brewster defensemen Chad Malinowski is third on the team in scoring and has factored in on the score sheet in recent weeks more importantly he matches up against the oppositions first line and has been consistently anchoring the blue line while contributing on the offensive side of the puck

Kings Drop Two At Home

The Green Mountain Glades invaded Foxboro over the weekend and left with 4 points after sweeping the South Shore Kings Empire. Saturday's game featured a see saw battle from the drop of the puck as the Glades went 3-9 on the power play to secure a hard fought 5-4 victory. Sunday's contest featured much of the same as the Kings fell by a score of 4-2. The Kings were outshot for only the second time of the season.

News and Notes

Seven players from the Kings Empire were recently called up to the EJ as the EJ Kings took on Hampton Roads of the EJ South. Forwards Mike Debuccia, Alex Erban, Pat DeMontigny, Jack Kilty, and Evan Jacques all saw action as the Kings defeated Hampton Roads 5-1. Defenseman Brandon Yee and goalie Dan Touzos played well in the victory.

Looking Ahead

Things won't get any easier for the Kings as they will travel to Springfield on Saturday before returning home to play the Jr. B's on Sunday.

Stars take it on chin; look to rebound

After a successful 3 game winning streak, the Buffalo Stars were hoping the familiar confines of Holiday Twin Rinks would help them extend their streak against the powerful New York Applecore team. It didn't.

It was Stars Health & Fitness Night and the Saturday night stands were once again filled with vocal Stars supporters. Buffalo and Applecore played pretty even hockey for the first 5 minutes as both teams felt each other out. Applecore drew first blood at 5:43 and came right back less than 2 minutes later to take a 2 goal lead on the Stars. Buffalo fell flat after that and Applecore went up by 3 at the 16 minute mark.

Buffalo finally got on the board at 17:04 as Chris Moses parted 2 defenders and roofed one by the Applecore goalie to put the Stars back in the game.

The second period saw Buffalo storm out and Brian Ruff put the Stars to within one at just the 2:03 mark. Applecore went up 4-2 just 3 minutes later and put the game away at the 15:01 mark.

Buffalo played a solid 3rd period and held the Core scoreless but the Stars could not score either and the game ended at 5-2 in favor of Applecore. The game was played with just a single minor penalty being called. That was a hooking infraction on Applecore with just under 3 minutes to play.

On Sunday morning the Stars came out flying and both teams had numerous scoring chances in the first 14 minutes. Disaster then hit when Buffalo stopped playing and Applecore put in 3 goals in a span of 54 seconds. Buffalo played a strong second period and that momentum carried into the third. However, Applecore scored twice more past the mid way point of the period to put the game away. Buffalo avoided the shutout late in the game as Chris Moses scored on the powerplay at 17:56.

Buffalo now drops to 4-7-3 in league play (6-9-3 overall).

The Stars hope to get back in their winning ways this weekend as the Frederick (MD) Freeze come to town during the Stars Annual Taste of Buffalo Stars Weekend.

The Stars were successful in one way last weekend as their Blood Drive, in conjunction with the Upstate New York Transplant Services Organization, collected enough blood to save 42 lives. The Buffalo Stars and UNYTS want to thank everyone who so generously donated.

SUCCESS IS A MARATHON: ONE SHIFT AT A TIME

Game 1 of the weekend didn't start off the way the Hampton Roads Whalers had planned. The Knights went off to the tune of 5 goals in the first 20 minutes and things looked bad for the Whalers. In the 2nd period the Whalers took over the game and chipped into the Atlanta lead. At 10:29 Keegan Howver found the back of the net from Taylor Paasch to make it 5-1. Then at 15:32 Michael Addison made it 5-2 from John Davies. Things were looking better for the Whalers until Atlanta scored at 17:19 to make it 6-2. In the 3rd period the Whalers were even better, outshooting the Knights 18-4, but the Whalers struggled to find the back of the net. Their only conversion was on the power play at 8:32 when Jackson Braniff blasted a point shot home from Keegan Howver and Michael Addison. Atlanta goaltender Sean Davis turned aside 34 Whalers shots to preserve the win. Whaler's net minder Alan Johnson suffered the loss, stopping 21 of 27 Atlanta shots. Grant Laughrey stopped all 6 shots he faced in 22:20 of relief. The Whalers went 1 for 9 on the power play, the Knights 1 for 5.

In game 2 of the weekend the Whalers started much better against the Knights. Again Atlanta jumped out to the early lead on a goal at 3:17. The Whalers responded late in the period when Ryan Abshear ripped a shot top corner off a face-off win by Nathan Kanter at 19:04. In the 2nd period the Knights got a power play goal at 5:58 to regain the lead 2-1. The Whalers again responded late in the period at 17:59 when Nathan Kanter converted from Damon Ascenzi and Nick Kujawa to send it into the 3rd period tied 2-2. The Whalers jumped out in front 3-2 in the 3rd at 10:12 when Keegan Howver scored on a feed from Damon Ascenzi and Taylor Paasch. At 14:45 the Knights would tie it up at 3-3 and the game was headed to OT. After a scoreless OT in which the Whalers outshot Atlanta 4-1 the game headed to a best of 3 shootout. Keegan Howver and Taylor Paasch were denied for the Whalers before forward Jeremy Wilson scored in the 3rd round to seal the victory for the Whalers. The story of the night was Whalers goaltender Grant Laughrey, who made big save after big save to keep the Whalers in the game. Turning aside 43 of 46 Atlanta shots as well as all 3 Atlanta Shootout attempts. The Whalers were 0 for 3 on the power play, Atlanta was 2 for 5. Shots on goal were 46-41 in favor of the Knights.

In game 3 on Sunday it was the Knights who came out with vengeance in mind, outshooting the Whalers 21-9 in the 1st frame. Yet, it was the Whalers who took a 1-0 lead into the intermission off a goal at 15:22 by Jackson Braniff from Nathan Kanter and Ryan Gullett. In the 2nd period the Whalers were much better, holding a 17-10 shot advantage and taking a 2-0 lead at 3:13 when Taylor Paasch broke his goal scoring drought from Damon Ascenzi and Keegan Howver. In the 3rd Howver would extend the Whalers lead to 3-0 at 9:47 from Damon Ascenzi. Atlanta responded at 12:15 to make it 3-1 but the Whalers defense and goaltender Grant Laughrey shut it down the remainder the game as the Whalers took 2 of 3 in the weekend series. Laughrey again was the story in the net, stopping 44 of 45 Knights shots including his best Dominic Hasek impression late in the 3rd period on an Atlanta 2 v 1. The Whalers went 0 for 2 on the power play, Atlanta was 0 for 5. The Knights held a 45-36 shots on goal advantage, thanks in large part to their 21-9 1st period. With the wins the Whalers maintained sole possession of 3rd place in the Empire Southern Division with a record of 8-8-1, closing within 4 points of the 2nd place Knights.

The Whalers will enjoy the weekend off. Then are at home November 19th and 20th when the Whalers welcome the Fredrick Freeze. The Whalers look to build off of this past weekend and continue to close the gap on Atlanta as they work towards the top of the Southern Conference.

Empire South News & Notes
